

Palliative Care Week

April 14 – April 18, 2008

Wednesday, April 16th

12:15pm - 1:15 pm

BSEB East Lecture Hall Medicine
Grand Rounds

“Emerging Palliative Care Issues: American Indians/ Alaska Natives”

Judith A. Kitzes, M.D, M.D.H.

Associate Professor in the Division of Geriatrics,
Department of Internal Medicine, she is director of the Palliative Care Section and Curriculum Director for the School of Medicine BA/MD Program

Disclosure Report: Course Director: Dr. Michael Bronze has no financial relationships or affiliations to disclose. Planning Committee Members: Dr. Ben Cowley has received grants/research support from Roche. Dr. Ronald Greenfield has received honorarium from Abbott, Boehringer, Ingelheim, Pfizer, Gilead, Wyeth, Schering-Plough, and Cubicin. Dr. John Harley has been a consultant for Pickering; Hale & Dorr, LLP; Shook, Hardy & Bacon; Cockhran, and Heath & Lyles. He has received honorarium from Bio-Rad, Therapeutics, Inc., and MedImmune. He has received other financial or material support from Broegelman Laboratory Prize and has been an employee of a commercial interest organization – JK Autoimmunity, Inc. Dr. Courtney Houchen has no financial relationships or affiliations to disclose. Dr. Gary Kinasewitz has no financial relationships or affiliations to disclose. Dr. Tim Lyons has received grants/research support from Glaxo Smith Kline. He has been a consultant for and received honorarium from Pfizer and Merck. Dr. Howard Ozer has received grants/research support from Amgen, Novartis, Pfizer, Genentech, Lilly, and Sanofi-Aventis. He has been a consultant for Amgen, BiogenIdec, and Sanofi-Aventis. Dr. Dwight Reynolds has received grants/research support from, been a consultant for, been a stock shareholder in, and received honorarium from Medtronic, Inc. Course Contact: Ms. Maggie Thompson has no financial relationships or affiliations to disclose. Speaker: Dr. Judith Kitzes has no financial relationships or affiliations to disclose.

Friday, April 18th

12:00pm – 1:00pm

BSEB East Lecture Hall
(lunch provided from 1:00pm – 1:30pm)

“Spiritual Healing”

Crosslin Smith

Crosslin Smith is an elder Cherokee spiritual leader and healer. He was born into a traditional Keetowah family. He is an internationally recognized lecturer on Native American wisdom.

