

Professionalism

Friday, October 15, 2004 with M. Dewayne Andrews, Executive Dean, College of Medicine

This presentation introduced concepts of professionalism, using examples from medicine and medical education that relate to all health professions. Discussion focused on:

- Why are we paying so much attention to professionalism?
- What is it? Can we define it?
- Can it be taught?
- Can we assess it?

