

Creating the Educator's Profile, Portrait and Portfolio

Friday, June 16, 2006 with Dr. Valerie N. Williams, Ph.D.

The purpose of this session is to introduce the Educator's Portfolio as a tool for faculty reflection, self- and peer-assessment, and structured documentation of teaching and broader educator roles. The overall goal of the session is to provide a framework for structuring an educator's portfolio and to address frequently asked questions about what to include and how to use a portfolio as a resource toward achieving educational goals and/or toward academic advancement review.

Learning Objectives

At the completion of this presentation, participants will be able to:

- Describe purpose of an educator's portfolio
- Teaching roles and their relationship to portfolio sections
- Creating a personal teaching profile
- Describe uses of a portfolio as a resource for self- and peer- evaluation
