

Leadership on the Educational Frontier: Roadmaps and Detours in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Perspectives from a Carnegie Scholar

Friday, April 18, 2008 with JoLaine R. Draugalis, R.Ph., Ph.D., FAPhA, FASHP

Learning Objectives

At the completion of this presentation, participants will be able to:

- Describe the evolution of the Carnegie Academy for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning of The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- Discuss how faculty can be empowered to pursue a scholarship of teaching and learning in both the classroom and practice setting(s).
- State where additional sources of information may be found.

About the EGR Presenter

Dr. Draugalis is Dean and Edith Kinney Gaylord Professor at the OUHSC College of Pharmacy. She received her B.S. in pharmacy with distinction from Ferris State University in her native state of Michigan. After practicing hospital pharmacy for six years, Dr. Draugalis entered graduate school and completed her M.Ed. in educational psychology and her Ph.D. in pharmacy at the University of Arizona. Her research interests are in pharmaceutical education program design, administration and evaluation.

