

Testing with Technology

Friday, February 15, 2013

with Britta Thompson, Ph.D., College of Medicine and Jennifer Raasch, M.S., MLIS, Academic Technology

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this activity, participants will be able to:

- Identify various testing options available to OUHSC faculty
- Incorporate best practices applied to the online testing environment
- Identify OUHSC online testing software options and tech support contacts

About the Presenters: Britta Thompson, Ph.D., is the Assistant Dean for Medical Education and the Director of the Office of Medical Education at the OUHSC College of Medicine. Dr. Thompson oversees activities associated with medical education and simulation, curriculum evaluation and learner assessment, faculty development, medical education research, as well as the Willard Body Program. Her research interests are in the area of medical education, including evaluating activities that promote student reflection and cultural competency.

Jennifer Raasch is the Manager of eLearning in the Department of Academic Technology. Prior to her employment at OUHSC, she worked at Oklahoma City University and was also an adjunct professor for online humanities courses. She has a BS degree in Art Education, MS in Organizational Communication, Learning and Design, and an MLIS in Library and Information Science.

