

AAMC Mid-Career Women Faculty Professional Development Seminar

December 6-9, 2014, Austin, TX
AT&T Executive Education Conference Center

A program designed for women holding medical school appointments at the associate professor* level, and holding leadership positions within their discipline, department or institution.

The seminar covers a range of leadership topics specifically related to the mid-career faculty member such as conflict management and negotiation, communication, wellness, and strategic planning, which are central to effective collaboration and leadership in various mission-critical activities.

The program goal is to enhance knowledge and skills needed to support progress along the path to leadership in academic medicine. Participants will benefit from a combination general group sessions and self-selected topical breakout sessions to tailor the seminar to specific needs and interests.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: The online application period will close on October 23, 2014, 11:59 pm, Eastern Time. For more information and to view the preliminary agenda, please click here.
