Oklahoma Individual and Family Support Principles to Practice Indicators

The Oklahoma Individual and Family Support Principles to Practice Indicators is a publication of the Center for Learning and Leadership that was developed by the Oklahoma Family Support Partnership Council. The indicators describe the behaviors expected of individuals and families, service providers and service systems if they are operating from the Oklahoma Individual and Family Support Principles. The principles were developed by the Oklahoma Family Support Partnership Council to guide family support policies and programs. Each of the nine principles is featured in the publication with a list of behavioral indicators and a self-checklist.
