

---

The Office of Academic Affairs & Faculty Development
Educators for Excellence 2013

---

Educators for Excellence (E4E) is an initiative for fellowship, dialogue and discovery about what it takes to promote and sustain educators for excellence in teaching and learning.

Please Join Us

Sonia J. Crandall, Ph.D.
Professor, Family & Community Medicine
Wake Forest School of Medicine

as she presents

Understanding and Managing Implicit Bias

Thursday, May 16, 2013
7:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.
Faculty House
main dining room

RSVP by Tuesday, May 14, 2013, by clicking here

and

Education Grand Rounds

Connecting Cultural Competence Education to Outcomes: “We Make the Road by Walking”****

Friday, May 17, 2013
12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m.
Bird Library Auditorium (OKC)/LC221 (Tulsa)

Dr. Sonia Crandall is a tenured Professor in the Departments of Physician Assistant Studies and Family & Community Medicine at Wake Forest School of Medicine. She is the Director for Scholarship and Research for the Department of Physician Assistant Studies and Director of the Women's Health Center of Excellence Leadership and Mentoring Program. She is affiliate faculty in the Maya Angelou Center for Health Equity and the WFU Translational Science Institute. She has a Ph.D. in Adult Education and an MS in epidemiology. Her medical education research background is in curriculum development, program evaluation and adult learning theory and has additional expertise in designing cultural competence curriculum for health professions learners. Recently she began serving as the associate editor for the Interprofessional Education Collaboration collection of MedEdPORTAL, a peer-reviewed publication service provided by the Association of American Medical Colleges in partnership with the American Dental Education Association..